THE DEMAND ON CHINA

Ministers Ask for the Death Penalty of Twelve Officials.

TWO ALREADY DEAD

The Punishment of Prince Tuan and Duke Lan Is Fixed at Banishment—Punishment of Boxer Leaders in Provinces.

Pekin, Feb. 6.—The ministers have definitely decided to demand the imposition of the death penalty upon all 12 Chinese officials named in list submitted, including those who are dead, on account of the moral effect on the Chinese. Sentence on the living must be inflicted except in the cases of Prince Tuan and Duke Lan, which the emperor may commute to banishment. At the meeting of the ministers and Chinese plenipotentiaries Tuesday, the entire proceedings were oral, no writings being presented to the Chinese. A formal indictment against the 12 culprits whose punishment was demanded, however was read, though Kang Yi and Li Ping Heng are dead. The names of the 12 are:

Prince Tuan, the commander-in-chief of the boxers who had a large share in the responsibility for the promises of the rewards of 50 taels for the capture of the foreigners and their death. For protecting Prince Tuan, the principal instigator of the trouble, he was appointed president of the tsung li yamen after giving advice to Chinese government. He is responsible for edicts against foreigners begun Aug. 26, and was mainly responsible for the massacres in which the provinces, especially in Shan Si, ordered the troops to attack the legations in opposition to the advice of high mandarins who were looking to a cessation of hostilities, secured the execution of members of the tsung li yamen favorable to foreigners and was recognized author of the ultimatum of June 9, ordering the diplomatic corps to leave Peking in 24 hours and ordered before the expiration of this delay firing upon all foreigners in the streets of the capital and was practically the author of the assassination of Baron von Ketteler, the German minister.

Duke Lan, vice president of the police department, who was accessory to the giving of orders for the capture of foreigners and was the first to open the gates of the city to the boxers.

Ying Nien, who was criminal accomplice of Prince Tuan and Duke Lan in their machinations.

Kang Yi, one of the instigators and counsellors of the boxers, who always protected them and was most hostile to any understanding looking to the reestablishment of peaceful relations with the foreigners who were sent at the commencement of June to meet the boxers and endeavor to deter them from entering the city, but who, on the contrary, encouraged them to follow the work of destruction and who signed with Prince Tuan and Ying Nien their principal notices and prepared the plan for expulsion and annihilation of foreigners in the provinces of the empire.

Chao Su Kiam, a member of the grand council and also minister of justice, who was one of the leaders against the foreigners and mainly responsible for the execution of the officials killed during the siege, for having tried to stop the attack against the legations and who tendered the boxers every encouragement.

Yu Hsien, who recognized the boxers, was the author of the massacres in the Shan Si province and assassinated with his own hand foreigners and missionaries, and who was noted for cruelty, which stained with blood the whole country over which he was governor.

General Tung Fuh Siang, who, with Prince Tuan, carried out the plans against the foreigners and who commanded the attacks on the legations and the soldiers who assassinated the Japanese chancellor.

Li Ping Heng, who used his influence to have the boxers reorganized as loyal and patriotic men and who led the government to use them with the object of extermination of foreigners.

Hsin Tung, who has always been one of the officials most hostile to foreigners, who praised the boxers of whom he was an accomplice, who used all his influence with high persons in the empire, being tutor to the heir apparent.

Hsiu Cheng Yu, who has the same responsibility.

Kih Su, one of the officials most hostile to foreigners and the minister at the rites of service of the boxers.

The ministers then announced that the above personages all deserved death.

When this question is settled the foreign plenipotentiaries will have to indicate who, to their knowledge, committed crimes in the provinces, punishment for which will have to be inflicted.

They will also present to the Chinese in order to prevent misunderstanding, the text of the edict referred to in article 10 of the collective note before its publication.

The ministers held a meeting to consider what the next step would be, but adjourned after a short conference, at which no decision was reached.

YOUTSEY SENTENCED.

Given Life Imprisonment for Complicity in the Goebel Murder.

Georgetown, Ky., Feb. 6.—Henry E. Youtsey was sentenced by Judge Cantrell Tuesday to life imprisonment. Youtsey was pale and weak when he stood up to receive the sentence of the court. His wife sat near by and heard the sentence consigning her husband to she penitentiary for life but bore up under the ordeal bravely.

"Mr. Youtsey, stand up," said the judge.

"Now," continued the judge, "have you any reason to give why sentence

HENRY E. YOUTSEY.

should not be pronounced upon you?"

In a low tone Youtsey said:

"I have nothing to say except that I am innocent and that my conviction was accomplished only by base and infamous subornation of perjury."

Then he sat down. For a moment no one spoke.

"That was a subject which you should have addressed to the jury which convicted you," answered the judge, who then pronounced the sentence.

The lawyers for Youtsey issued an appeal to the people in which they charged that of the 125 jurors summoned to try Youtsey 124 were Goebel Democrats. They charged fraud in selecting jurors and perjury in conviction of Youtsey and advised Youtsey not to appeal as no relief could be secured there.

The case of Barber Weaver, accused of perjury in the Powers case, will go to trial today.

Ordered to Franklin Jail.

Georgetown, Ky., Feb. 6.—Judge Cantrell has ordered Henry Youtsey and Caleb Powers to be taken to Franklin county jail for safe keeping until further instructions.

VEST ON CUBA.

He Says the Outcome Will Be Annexation in the End.

New York, Feb. 6.—Senator Vest of Missouri, is quoted by the Washington correspondent of The Tribune as saying of the Cuban situation:

"Undoubtedly we have no more right or power to amend the Cuban constitution by an act of congress than we have to do so with the constitution of France or any other foreign country. We are stopped from this by both the Teller resolution and the decision of the supreme court in the Neely case, declaring Cuba to be a foreign country.

"When the Cubans adopted a constitution and form a government we are solemnly pledged to give them absolute independence. There is no way of our getting around this, even if we wanted to, because the law directs us what to do. After we have turned Cuba over to the Cubans we then must become protector of that country. We must say to all the world: 'Hands off while Cuba is working out for herself the problem of self government.'"

"I confidently believe after they struggle awhile with the tremendous problem of self government they will give it up and seek annexation to the United States. For years I have been convinced that this is the destiny of Cuba. I welcomed the Spanish war as a means for hastening this and I agree with the suggestion Mr. Jefferson made nearly 100 years ago, 'we need Cuba to round out our territorial domain.'"

Ship Subsidy Bill Thrown Aside for Appropriation Measures.

DEPORTING OF RICE.

Senator Teller Succeeds in Having an Investigation Made—Spooner Bill May Do Away With an Extra Session.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The senate yesterday passed the District of Columbia appropriation bill and partially considered the bill making appropriation for the support of the West Point military academy. During the day the ship subsidy bill was formally laid aside and superseded as the unfinished business.

Mr. Chandler of New Hampshire presented the credentials of his successor, Mr. Henry E. Burnham.

The chair appointed Messrs. Hanna, Spooner and Jones of Arkansas members of the joint committee on inauguration and Messrs. Chandler and Caffery as tellers of the vote for president and vice president when the electoral vote is counted.

Mr. Teller called up and spoke upon his resolution calling upon the secretary of war for information concerning the reports of the deportation of George T.
Rice editor of a Manila newspaper, to the United States by the general in charge of the American forces in the Philippines. He spoke of the proceeding as one of importance to all, for Mr.
Rice was a citizen of the United States and an offense against him was an offense against every other citizen of the country. His resolution was agreed to.

The house continued discussion of controverted questions in connection with the postoffice bill. Mr. Griggs of Georgia, spoke against organization of postal employees formed with a view of forcing legislation in their interest.

Mr. Bromwell of Ohio, and Mr.
Gaines of Tennessee, assailed the appropriations for special mail facilities from New York to New Orleans and Mr. Catchings of Mississippi, and Mr.
Meyer of Louisiana, defended these appropriations as necessary for the expedition of the southern mail.

The debate was interrupted to permit the house to act upon the senate amendment to the joint resolution for the appointment of a joint committee to arrange the programme for inauguration of the president and vice president.
Messrs. Cannon of Illinois, Dalzell of Pennsylvania, and McRae of Arkansas, were appointed.

Extra Session Talk.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The question of an extra session is still in abeyance by the president, but the opinion is expressed that in the event of congress passing the Spooner Philippine bill an extra session may be avoided, especially as there seems to be some doubt whether the Cuban constitution will be adopted in time for action even at an extra session if called soon after March 4. With the Spooner bill enacted upon by this congress it is believed an extra session will be called.

Military Academy Bill Passed.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The senate has passed the military academy bill.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The senate has county, Arkansas, to contract for the miles of Pine Bluff.

Bloomfontein, Feb. 6.—The Post publishes a passionate appeal from Piet De-Wet, chairman of the peace commission,

Declines Any Information.

New York, Feb. 6.—J. P. Morgan and his partner, Robert Bacon, declined to discuss or to make any statement whatever concerning the reports that J. P.
Morgan & Co. has purchased Andrew Carnegie's steel properties. A conference was held at Mr. Morgan's offices between Mr. Morgan, Mr. Bacon, President Gary of the Federal Steel company, President Reid of the American Tin Plate company, and a director in each of the National Steel, American Sheet and American Hoop companies, in all of which Mr. Morgan has interests.

Thanks on the Side.

Havana, Feb. 6.—The Cuban constitutional convention will refuse positively to add a clause to the constitution expressing gratitude to the United States. The delegates say that such an expression does not belong in the constitution but they are willing to adopt a independent resolution thanking the United States. The delegates deplore the recent utterances of the United State senators wherein the stand is taken that the convention must insert a gratitude clause before favorable action will be taken by congress.

Steamer Encounters an Earthquake.

San Francisco, Feb. 6.—A violent earthquake threw the steamer Guata-malá partly out of water and caused that vessel to tremble from stem to stern for at least a minute off the coast of Ecuador during her latest trip. The shock took place when the Guatamala was five miles off the coast north of Guayaquil, on Jan. 6. On reaching Guayaquil it was learned the most violent earthquake in the history of the place occurred, but no serious damage.

A CREDIT CHECK SWINDLE.

Trick by Which One Firm Got Dollars Without Selling Shirt Waists.

That there is no end to the ways of imposing upon the suffering New York public was illustrated by the failure of a small store recently. The newly appointed receiver was surprised by having many women come to his office with credit checks. These checks were for small amounts, ranging from $1 to $10. At first the receiver couldn't understand it, but upon investigation he learned the details of a pretty system of fleecing.

The firm, it seems, had made a specialty of silk and cotton shirt waists.
These were, with few exceptions, shapeless, ill fitting garments, and when the unfortunate women shoppers got home with their purchases and put them on they were disgusted to find that the bargain sale waists were baggy and puckery and altogether so poorly fashioned that it would be next to impossible to make them fit even by a complete ripping up and remaking. Such being the conditions they invariably took the goods back and demanded other waists or their money. It was contrary to the principles of the firm to refund money) and as they seldom had waists more becoming either in style or shape than the ones returned, they were driven to the extremity of credit checks.

"We will get in a new supply of waists in a few days," was the suave assurance of the manager and his well trained assistants. "Your check will be good at any time, and when we replenish our stock you can select a waist that suits you."

But the new stock never arrived, and in spite of the good dollars received from deluded customers without decreasing their capital of waists, the firm became insolvent and then the women began to come with credit checks. So far the receiver has been unable to compensate them for their loss through the swindle which, in its way, was rather neat.—New York Sun.

AARON BURR'S MAGNETISM.

He Conquered All Feminine Hearts Without an Effort.

"From the time the beautiful and brilliant Mme. Jumel had been a young girl and when Aaron Burr was only a captain in the American army she had been more than once under the spell of his strange fascination," writes William Perrine in The Ladies' Home Journal. "Burr had introduced her to the celebrated Margaret Moncrieff, had desperately flirted with her and had implanted within her an admiration which was still alive when he was an aged social exile. She had written of him in earlier days that he appeared to her to be 'the perfection of manhood,' that his figure and form had been fashioned in the mold of the graces and that he was as familiar with the drawing room as with the camp."

"In a word," she said, "he was a combined model of Mars and Apollo.
His eye was of the deepest black and sparkled with an incomprehensible brilliance when he smiled, but if enraged its power was absolutely terrific. Into whatever female society he chanced by the fortunes of war or the vicissitudes of private life to be cast, he conquered all hearts without an effort, and until he became deeply involved in the affairs of state and the vexations incident to the political arena I do not believe a female capable of the gentle emotions of love ever looked upon him without loving him." Wherever he went he was petted and caressed by her sex, and hundreds vied with each other in a continuous struggle to offer him some testimonial of their adulation. Subsequently Mme.
Jumel was married to Burr, who was nearly 80 and she nearly 60. The marriage was not a happy one, and the two soon separated."

Old Apothecaries and Doctors.

The offenses of apothecaries in the middle ages were numerous and the punishment in some cases a whipping.
The worst was the improper sale of poisons—that is to say, except when not duly prescribed by a known physician of reputation, and even then not to put down in a register the name of the doctor and person to whom such prescription containing poison was delivered, was punishable likewise. The sale of poison for drugging fish was prohibited and also that of inferior drugs by any apothecary. To prescribe himself (unless a doctor could not be found) was an offense punishable by a whipping, and all preparations sold by him had to be made up in the presence of the doctor or of another apothecary.
A barber surgeon might only prescribe for exterior applications "according to surgery," but we are not told what was the penalty in such a case.—Gentleman's Magazine.

Her Meanness.

An American hostess, on the occasion of a gathering of distinguished people, was endeavoring to add to the pleasure of a Frenchman by talking to him in his native language. Noticing that her lack of fluency was irksome to the lady and desiring to relieve her embarrassment, with praiseworthy amiability the foreigner said:

"Pardon, madame, somewhat the French is difficult for you. I am able to understand your meanness if you will speak English."—London Chronicle.

At the Finger's End.

"My niece," said the doctor, "has joined an organization they call the—strange I can't think of the name.
I had it at my tongue's end a moment ago—oh, yes, I remember it now. They call it the Thimble club."

"Then you didn't have it at your tongue's end," objected the professor.
"You had it at your finger's end."—Chicago Tribune.

Health and Beauty

For generations women have been taught that "beauty is only skin deep," but, like many proverbs, that will not stand.
Beauty is blood deep. There can be no beauty without health. Our grandmothers lived closer to nature than we do, and they were so sheltered by their home life that health and beauty were theirs naturally.
Skin foods, freckle lotions and face bleaches were unknown commodities. But there has been a great change in the life of women since then. With broader education and larger opportunities, she has developed mentally at the expense of her health. From the quiet duties of home she has gone forth until now we find her in many avocations of life, which prove too great a tax on her vitality. How sad it is to see the cheek robbed of its color and the eye of its fire.
These symptoms nearly always show derangements in the delicate feminine organism. They don't call for bleaches or paints or powders, but for a remedy that will make the afflicted organs strong and well. Wine of Cardui is just such a remedy. Women broken in health and spirit have been made healthy and happy by this Wine. No one should give up to the "blues" until this reliable remedy has been tried. It has proven a blessing to other women and will not disappoint you. It brings that buoyancy of spirit, elasticity of step and lightness of heart which is the corner stone of beauty. A healthy woman is always beautiful.

Westville, February 4, 1890.
I feel that I must say a few words in praise of the Ladies' greatest friend, Wine of Cardui. It is the most wonderful remedy that I ever tried. I have been a sufferer for years, at times being confined to my bed two or three days each month.
A friend recommended Wine of Cardui, and since I have taken it I have been greatly relieved. I intend to continue to take it, for I know it is as recommended.
I will use every effort to get others to use it. Mrs. MARY E. COOLEY.

Chautauqua Announcement.

The first meeting for this year of the directors of the Colorado Chautauqua Association occurred in Boulder, Colorado, Saturday January 19, with President J. L. Long of Dallas in the chair.

Extensive improvements were outlined for the dining-hall and other buildings. It was decided to make Sunday a free day, opening the gates to the public for the sacred concerts and sermons by visiting eminent divines.

A splendid band is already engaged for the season. General Fitzhugh Lee has been invited to make the opening address; and, from the class of talent already engaged and that applying for space on this year's platform it is evident that the high standard of the past will not only be maintained, but even improved upon in the coming season.

The tried favorites of the assembly will return for the 1901 assembly, and the new attractions are to be selected from among others of national reputation. The session this year will open July 4th and close August 9th, lasting five weeks.

Mrs. Lillie Thompson Richter, famous for her teachings with reference to fine cooking, says: "After thoroughly testing the merits of Premium Baking Powder in my own kitchen, I find it to be superior to all others in results and far superior in healthfulness." JAPAN ASKED FOR IT.

Wanted America to Get Spanish Islands to Keep Germany Out.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The steps taken by the government to complete its title to the Philippines and other islands to the north of Luzon, it is said, were due to representations made by Japan. After the acquisition of Formosa from China, Japan found the question of jurisdiction a troublesome one on account of the Spanish islands so close to Formosa, and after the negotiation the boundary line between the Japanese and Spanish possessions was fixed at 21 degrees, 30 minutes, just south of Formosa and to the north of the Basche islands. The treaty of Paris, negotiated by the American and Spanish commissions which ended the war with Spain provided for the cession by Spain of all islands within certain defined boundaries, the northern boundary being a line running from west to east, along or near the 20th parallel of the north latitude and through the middle of the navigable channel of Bachi.

Rear Admiral Bradford, chief of the naval bureau of equipment, who was the naval attaché of the peace commission on examination of more detailed charts of the Philippines discovered that the Bachi and several other islands lay outside of the northern boundary and it is apparent that Japan made the same discovery. To correct this error, Secretary Hay in the treaty for the purchase of the islands of Cayagan and Sibutu for $100,000, induced the Spanish government to agree to relinquish them.

The belief prevails here that Japan desired the United States to acquire a definite title to the islands north of the twentieth degree of latitude rather than permit Spain to claim them for the purpose of selling them to Germany or some other power. Mr. Bradford says the islands are very important from a strategic point of view and it would be well for the United States to acquire them.

WEDDING OF WILHELMINA.

Kruger Not Invited Because No Offense Will Be Given England.

The Hague, Feb. 6.—The queen and Duke Heinrich have received for the third time congratulations of the ministers of all the foreign powers at the palace. Dr. Leyds, who still has diplomatic standing at The Hague as representative of the Transvaal, attended the reception, but Mr. Kruger was at Utrecht undergoing treatment for his eyes. Neither will be present at the wedding, although both are extremely popular among the Dutch who are passionate partisans of the Boer cause, good neutrals as they may be in business and diplomatic relations. Queen Wilhelmina treated Mr. Kruger with almost royal distinction, but she did not venture to give offense to England by inviting him to the wedding, thereby excluding the British minister from this function.

The diplomatists breakfasted at the palace and attended the concert in the garden given by 650 members of singing societies. The queen and duke drove in the course of the afternoon to Ryewick and returned to meet the diplomatists again at dinner in the banquet hall and attend with them and the royal guests the gala performance at the theater Royal.

Duke Henry has not been generously treated by the radical government of The Netherlands. He has received various distinctions and privileges, which cost the country nothing; he has obtained naturalization as a Dutch citizen by a special act and rank in the army and navy as general and admiral, and after his marriage he will have the title of prince by royal patent, but he has not secured annuity or allowance from the Dutch chambers and will be dependent upon the queen for financial support and in the emergency of her death he will not have a pension from the government and will be unprovided for except by bequest from her.

FROM THE FAR WEST.

Dry Weather and Smallpox Reported by an Eagle Correspondent.

Seymour, Baylor county, Texas.
February 5, 1901.—Dear Editor: As you have no one writing from the far west and as my father is a subscriber to the Eagle I will try to give you the happenings here.

This is a fine grain growing country.
One can see beautiful wheat fields everywhere. We have not had any rain for two months and need it bad.

There is considerable excitement about smallpox here although it seems to be a very light form. No other sickness in the country.

The weather is very cold here and the wind blows very hard driving the sand before it; so unlike old Brazos that I sometimes wish I was back to the old home land again.

TOPEKA IS EXCITED.

Worked up Over the Wrecking of Saloons by Mrs. Nation

SOME FREE FIGHTS.

Mrs. Nation Gets Police Protection and the Chief Declares Himself—The Keepers of Joints Arrested by Deputy Sheriffs.

Topeka, Feb. 6.—This town is still excited over the saloon smashing crusade of Mrs. Nation. The town is divided as to the acts of Mrs. Nation and as a consequence several fights have occurred.

Mrs. Nation has gained considerable ground here and police protection has been given her for the first time since she started on her saloon smashing career at Wichita a month ago. The police followed up her raid yesterday and arrested the proprietor of the Senate and two men who were guarding the place.
Mrs. Nation was promptly released without bond, but the proprietor and the guards were not released without bond.

Chief of Police Stahl said:
"I do not care if Mrs. Nation smashes every joint in Topeka. I sympathize with her. I hope she will close up the saloons of the city. As an officer of the law it is my duty to arrest her every time she creates a disturbance or destroys property. If we had the right kind of state officers it would not be necessary for Mrs. Nation to do what she is doing."

There is a great deal of talk of plots to hurt Mrs. Nation. It is learned that several saloon men have charged thick glass bottles with tremendous pressure so that explosion will occur when they are broken.

Mrs. Nation was arrested last night on a warrant sworn out in the city court by Kelly and Lytle who owned The Senate saloon. She is charged with malicious destruction of property. Her bond was placed at $100 and she was released until Saturday at which time her trial will take place.

Michael Wagner, supposed to be the owner of "The Senate," made the best of his opportunity yesterday and promptly secured a quantity of liquor to supply the crowd that poured into his place to view the wreck after Mrs. Nation had left. It took four bartenders to wait on the people. The crowd numbered about 200 and the proprietors of the place thrillily took advantage of the chance to boom business by stationing at the door a man who cried loudly:

"Souvenirs! souvenirs! A souvenir with each glass of beer."

Pieces of the broken glass that Mrs.
Nation and her crusaders had left scattered right and left were presented with each glass of beer sold and, so eager was the crowd for mementoes of Mrs. Nation's work that those who did not drink were glad to pay 5 cents for a bit of glass the beer drinkers got for nothing.

In the afternoon deputy sheriffs raided the place and took charge of the stock of liquors. Warrants had been sworn out only for Wagner and Little, the guards, but one of the deputies was so angry when a guard struck him that he arrested both guards.

Two Arkansas Saloons Smashed.

Poplar Bluff, Mo., Feb. 6.—At Dalton, Ark., a small town across the state line from here, five members of the W.
C. T. U., wrecked two saloons today.
All bottles of liquor smashed, contents of kegs poured into the streets and fixtures demolished.

Will Not Be Tolerated.

Sioux City, Feb. 6.—The city council has unanimously passed a strong resolution declaring that if Mrs. Nation comes to Sioux City, as has been announced as her intention, none of her saloon smashing will be tolerated, but that she will be arrested and punished.
The resolution is worded in dignified language throughout and refers to Mrs.
Nation's alleged intended acts as "illegal." The Woman's Christian Temperance union of Sioux City are divided as to the reception she should receive.

TEXAS LEGISLATURE.

Bills to Force Payment of Penalties for Violation of Anti-Trust Law.

Austin, Feb. 6.—The Waters-Pierce Oil company is again before the legislature. This company was brought up in the senate this morning in an indirect way by two bills introduced by Senators Arch Grinnan and Davidson; Senator Grinnan made a statement in response to a request for an explanation of the purposes of the measure. He said the bills, if they become laws, will prevent actions, or cause of actions for fines, forfeitures or penalties from abating where a corporation, liable therefor, is dissolved; and also provides a remedy for the enforcement of such fines, forfeitures or penalties against non-residents who have violated, or aided in violating the anti-trust laws of this state.

When asked as to whether these bills would affect fines, forfeitures or penalties already incurred by the Waters-Pierce Oil company, he said that they would and that the bills had been so framed as to give a remedy for the enforcement of fines already incurred by existing laws.

The senate yesterday debated the libel bill, but it was unfinished.

Just before adjournment Senator Savage offered a substitute in place of Senator Staples' amendment, which amendment incorporated a bill different from that originally introduced. Senator Sav-age's substitute is almost identical with the Staples bill as to definition of libel and statement of privileged matter except it provides that the truth shall be defense for publication, "provided it can be shown that no malice existed." The quoted provision is objectionable to both Senators Staples and Harbarts of Hunt, the authors of the bill, because it would still leave the burden of proof on the newspapers to prove want of malice and even the burden of proving "privileged matter."

The senate concurred in the house amendments to the interurban bill and is now ready for the governor.

A letter from David B. Hill was read regretting he could not address the legislature.

The house debated the bill providing for increase of ranger force.

The bill was engrossed after considerable discussion.

MANY PERSONS DEAD.

Petroleum and Naphtha Tanks Destroyed With Great Loss.

Baku, Russian Trans-Caucasia, Feb.
6.—Fire broke out Tuesday in the magazines of the Caspian and Black Sea company which contained 6,000,000 gallons of petroleum. The conflagration resulted in great loss of life and widespread damage. The flames spread to the other depots having a capacity of 12,000,000 pounds of naphtha, which poured out like a stream of lava inundating and setting fire to dwellings of workmen which were totally destroyed.
Many persons perished. Twenty of the charred bodies have been found and upward of 50 people are terribly burned.
Four hundred families lost everything they possessed.

The magazines are still burning and the neighboring reservoirs are in great danger. A general panic prevails.
Eight naphtha sprayers are on fire.

JEFFRIES-RUHLIN FIGHT.

Fenton Lawson Still on the Stand and Lawyers Clash Over Testimony.

Cincinnati, Feb. 6.—The hearing on the application for an injunction against the Jeffries-Ruhlin fight here, on Feb.
15, was resumed before Judge Hollister today. Fenton Lawson, who was secretary as well as director of the Saengerfest Musical association and the Saengerfest Athletic association continued his testimony which occupied most of Tuesday. In examining Mr. Lawson regarding communications between the athletic association with Governor Nash and Mayor Fleischman, the lawyers occupied most of the time in arguments on the competency of this evidence.

May Prolong a Week.

Cincinnati, Feb. 6.—Judging from the slow progress made and the long list of witnesses, it is believed the hearing will not be completed this week and that the decision of Judge Hollister may not be had before next week.

Electrocution at Sing Sing.

Sing Sing, Feb. 6.—Lorenzo Priori, who murdered Vinesio Garzo, in New York City on Dec. 11, 1898, and who a few weeks ago secured a stay of execution by representation that the crime was committed by his wife's brother, James Sacardo, was put to death in the electric chair in the state prison here.
It required two shocks to kill him. He left with the priest who attended him a statement declaring his innocence.

Will Revisit England.

London, Feb. 6.—Emperor William left England with the understanding if the affairs of state permits he will visit King Edward at Balmoral next autumn. It is also said there are some possibilities that the next season in London will see both Emperor William and the czar of Russia in this city.

Driving Boers Back.

London, Feb. 6.—General Kitchener, see. French is driving back the enemy aging train transport wagons at Pom-pey's Siding."
